

BIODATA OF AUTHORS

AJELP 2017

Ainon Omar is a Senior Lecturer in the English Language and Literature Department, Faculty of Languages and Communication, Sultan Idris Education University. Prior to joining the University, she has had 20 years of teaching English language in secondary schools and had assisted the Ministry of Education in the Training of Trainers programme for English language key personnel. She obtained her doctoral degree from Nova Southeastern University majoring in Instructional Leadership. Her main interests are children's literature, materials development and language acquisition.

Aiza Johari is currently attached to Universiti Teknologi MARA, Sarawak. She is an English lecturer under Academy of Language Studies, teaching Diploma and Degree students. She obtained her Masters in TESL (Hons) from Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia and TESOL degree (Hons) from University College of Chichester, United Kingdom. She can be contacted at aiza@sarawak.uitm.edu.my.

Che Ton Mahmud is currently a senior lecturer at the Faculty of Languages and Communication, Sultan Idris Education University, Perak, Malaysia. She received her doctoral degree in 2005. She has over thirty-five years of teaching experience. She has taught English language in both primary and secondary schools and also involved in the training of TESL pre-service and in-service teachers in teachers' training colleges in Malaysia. She was a teacher trainer for fifteen years before she joined Sultan Idris Education University. Her areas of interests are teacher education, TESL methodology, literature as resource and English phonetics and phonology. She can be contacted at che.ton@fbk.upsi.edu.my.

Ch'ng Looi-Chin is a lecturer at Universiti Teknologi MARA, Sarawak. She holds a B. Sc. (TESL) degree and a M.A (Applied Linguistics) degree. She is involved in research pertaining to language assessments and ELT teaching methodologies. She can be contacted at looichinchng@gmail.com.

Haddi@ Junaidi Kussin is a CELPAD teacher at the Centre for Languages and Pre-University Academic Development, International Islamic University. He can be contacted at hjk_iium@iium.edu.my.

Leong Mi-Chelle is a senior lecturer at KDU Penang University College. She has a Master of Arts in Linguistics and English Language Studies and Cambridge International Diploma for Teachers and Trainers (CIDTT). She has taught, trained and conducted various English language programmes for local and international students. She can be contacted at michelle.leong@kdug.edu.my.

Masoud Yousefzadeh is a Masters graduate in Teaching of English as a Foreign language at Payame Noor University, Rasht, Iran. He lives in Rasht, Guilan, Iran. He can be contacted at masud.yousefzadeh@gmail.com or phone no. : +989368956185.

Mohammad Aghajanzadeh is a faculty member at the Department of English, Payame Noor University, Rasht, Iran. He lives Rasht, Guilan, Iran. He can be contacted at teachingutopia@yahoo.com or phone no. : +989116011358.

Nor Hashimah Isa is a Senior Lecturer in the English Language and Literature Department, Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris, Tanjung Malim. She specialises in TESL and has conducted researches in English Language, English Literature and Teaching of English Literature. She was the research leader for many researches. Her research interest is in Comparative Literature.

Norhezan Che Teh is a PhD student in Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris, Perak. Her area of interest is Literature. She is an English teacher with 16 years of teaching experience and at present is teaching in Ipoh, Perak in a cluster school.

Norseha Unin has been a lecturer of English at Universiti Teknologi MARA, Sarawak for the past 26 years. She graduated from Northern Illinois University with a B.A. in English and M.S.Ed. in Secondary Education. Her PhD in the field of Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education was obtained from Michigan State University, USA. She can be contacted at norseha@sarawak.uitm.edu.my

Philip Wee comes from a family of teaching practitioners. Over the past ten years, he lectured at one of the leading private universities in Malaysia. He has held the position of Assistant Professor, School of English Language and Communication, Faculty of Social Sciences and Liberal Arts. He can be contacted at philip.singlish@gmail.com.

Revathi Gopal is a school teacher and she is currently pursuing her doctoral degree in Sultan Idris Education University, Perak, Malaysia. She has been teaching English language for twenty-three years in primary and secondary schools in Perak. She has a great passion for teaching and she aspires to upgrade the English language proficiency of Malaysian school students. Her areas of interest are reading and literature. She can be contacted at sivarev943@gmail.com.

Tam Shu Sim is a senior lecturer with the Faculty of Languages and Linguistics, University of Malaya, specialising in language learning particularly English as a Second Language. She is currently teaching and supervising postgraduate students and publishing in the field of language learning and Second Language Acquisition. Educational principles, in general, feature strongly in all her endeavours; she believes firmly in learner-centred approaches and adopts project-based learning methodologies in her MA courses. Her motto for each day is to live purposefully and help support others to grow to their potential as human beings.